We the Kids of 2001... I had made it through the year, a moment to reflect on how far I had come in the past 12 years. As we stand ready to face the challenges and opportunities ahead, we do so with a sense of pride and accomplishment. We have grown up in a world of change, and we have learned to embrace it. We have grown up in a world of opportunity, and we have learned to seize it. We have grown up in a world of challenge, and we have learned to overcome it. We have grown up in a world of hope, and we have learned to believe in it. We have grown up in a world of love, and we have learned to give it. We have grown up in a world of faith, and we have learned to trust in it. We have grown up in a world of peace, and we have learned to live in it. We have grown up in a world of joy, and we have learned to find it. We have grown up in a world of life, and we have learned to cherish it. We have grown up in a world of love, and we have learned to give it. We have grown up in a world of faith, and we have learned to trust in it. We have grown up in a world of peace, and we have learned to live in it. We have grown up in a world of joy, and we have learned to find it. We have grown up in a world of life, and we have learned to cherish it.

Foreign Language Department

The Foreign Language Department offers students an opportunity to immerse themselves in different cultures, customs, and most importantly the language. With Latin, French and Spanish to choose from, students are not limited in their options. The teachers here are committed to promoting the multicultural world to not just their own students. The Connecticut-Spain partnership continues to grow, and allows students to interact and have first-hand experience with people of a different culture.

Right: Rosi Trichilo shows her enthusiasm for translating Letter of Scipio.

Mathematics and Sciences Departments

The knowledge of the Mathematics Department has increased greatly in the past few years. Though math itself offers no leniency with choices for answers, the opposite applies to the amount of courses available; those who love numbers have Algebra, Geometry for the shape-lovers, and even Calculus for the high-rollers! The teachers here are dedicated to making sure you know the difference from a division sign to a square root symbol.

The Science Department instills the knowledge of Science from theories, formulas and concepts, besides shattering test tubes. The teachers encourage students to stretch their minds to the limit. The Science Department offers classes in Earth Science, Chemistry, Anatomy and Physiology and Physics. For students who wish to pursue a career in Science, Advanced Placement courses in Chemistry, Physics and Biology are also available. Between dissections, changing flame colors, and a fieldtrip to the Metacomet Ridge, the Science Department has something in its curriculum to pique the interest of all students.

Business and Technology Departments

The Business Department readies students to make the trek into the fast-paced, digital business world that awaits them after graduation. Classes in this department cover laws, ethics, formats, speed, and proficiency—all those traits that are essential to success in business affairs. Such classes include Computer Keyboarding, Business Law, and Desktop Publishing.

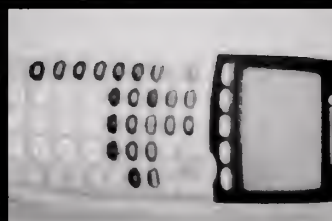

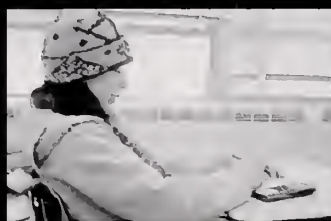

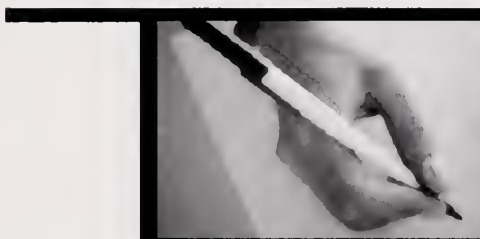

The Technology Education Department is always sparked with exciting activities. Classes offered are Graphic Arts, Photography, Drafting, Metal/Wood Technology, Robotics, and Auto Mechanics. These classes allow the students to become acquainted with the tools they may use in future careers, or to develop a hobby that they enjoy during their down time.

Family Living and Phys. Ed. Departments

The Family Living Department concentrates on preparing students for life that lies beyond high school. A wide range of classes are offered, such as Foods, Family and Society, Parent and Child Development and Independent Living. Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Jurgens are dedicated to providing students all the information and skills needed for the road ahead.

Where do we go to get in shape or learn some dieting tips? The Physical Education Department, of course! It's the only place where you won't get in trouble for running around. Students learn to compete, work as a team, and have fun. The games played include Soccer, Tennis, Badminton, Matball, Volleyball and more. The health classes teach students how to live long and prosper. The teachers are filled with energy and ready to start the fun.

Art and Music Departments

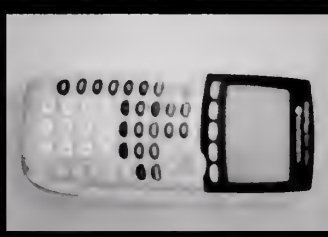

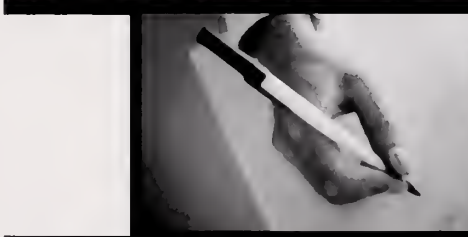

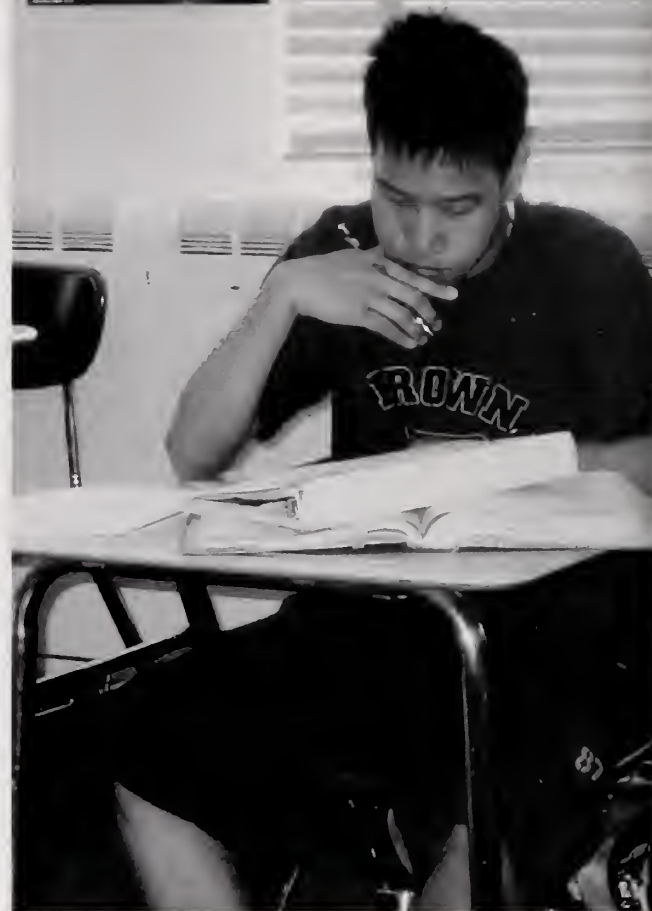

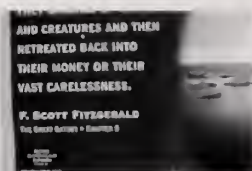

The Music Department offers a variety of classes to suit your skills, whether through theory, singing, or playing an instrument. The instrumental program is divided into Band, Jazz, and Orchestra. The vocal section of the department is comprised of Chorus and Bel Canto. For those truly dedicated to the art of singing, Voices Inc offers a chance to let their talent truly shine. All the classes are comprised of talented individuals as well as brilliant conductors.

The Art Department allows students to express their emotions either by clay or canvas. The focusing aspect of art is to help students develop their abilities. The Art Department offers courses such as Visual Arts, Painting, Drawing, Sculpture, and, for those who truly wish to excel in art, Portfolio and Preparation class. Led by Mrs. Nassau, the Art Department was able to display many awe-inspiring masterpieces at the annual arts festival.

Mr. Dunne, who served as Ms. Nassau's substitute in the first semester, plans the next lessons for a Ceramics class.

Below: The history department gathers and remembers their colleague on "the dark side."

English and History Departments

The English Department is filled with teachers adept in the Language Arts. It may seem easy express yourself in words, but it is far more complicated. These masters of literature must convey the secrets of writing to students. A multitude of courses is available to suit a student's interests. Students learn not only how to better understand literature but also how to analyze and deconstruct the complex inner workings of famous writings from well-known authors such as George Orwell, e. e. cummings, and Ernest Hemingway and a few obscure ones including Joan Didion and Clifford Geertz. Such classes include Writing and the Media, Critical Writing, and UConn English (a special place where tea parties are always the order of the day). With an intriguing selection of courses to choose from, you are guaranteed to find one to enjoy.

The History Department is full of filler text. For example, we had a better understanding of the psychological disorders from which people suffer. Farm Day continues to be an annual delight in which students and teachers alike celebrate the agricultural lifestyle of those Americans that provide Big Y with the 'colors of summer' all year round. Dr. Strangelove (or How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb) has proven time and time again to be not only a classic film, but a student favorite as well. Mock campaign ads and Congress sessions provided students with an opportunity to better understand the inner workings of the political machine known as the United States government. The teachers make stories come alive for students in the present and provide a new outlook for the future.

The Enfield High School Drama Club, also known as The Lamplighters, once more had a successful year none of us shall soon forget. Not limited to stage productions, the group also performed dinner shows providing a unique mix of fine dining and interactive entertainment. Though this talented group of actors changes every year, each performance proves to be as enchanting as the last.

The Science Club investigates different aspects of our natural world through experimentation. Looking into specific areas of interest, club members work together to build their knowledge through new and exciting experiences. The Science Club also works on the annual Spring Children's Museum which brings together many different departments of Enfield High. The museum boasts interactive displays that educate young children about how science affects everyday life-a true must-see event!

The Future Business Leaders of America club is looking for more participants! It is a professional student organization that is available to all students that participate in business education classes. It offers a chance for students to develop skills they need to succeed in the cutting edge world of business. Focusing on leadership, social skills, and service, FBLA students participate in conferences, learn about modern business practices, and have some fun along the way. With so much to offer, it is no wonder FBLA is growing each year with more students joining each year!

The Distributive Education Clubs of America is an organization whose purpose is to encourage occupational intelligence, social comprehension, civic duty, and leadership development. Every member of DECA possesses these admirable traits. The Enfield High School chapter takes part in the annual state competition. DECA's focus is not solely on business. Known for giving back to the community, the group actively participates in a number of public service activities. These include food collections, holiday card distributions, and fundraising to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Celebrating its third year under the advisement of Mr. McMahon, the Literary Magazine has published an array of writings submitted by the students of Enfield High. Poems, short stories, photographs and artworks are woven together to create a unique representation of the student body. The staff of the Literary Magazine anthologizes the works of some of Enfield High's best and brightest.

The vocal music programs in the school are quite possibly some of the best groups that involve innumerable students. These groups are known for spectacular shows, breathtaking special effects, and costumes with flair. Voice Inc., Common Ground, and Main Event wow every audience with each performance. Every group makes every effort to showcase catchy tunes, nice steps, and immense energy incorporated into the shows. Enfield High in conjunction with Enrico Fermi High gives the audiences a reason to always comeback for more!

The Jazz Band plays in many festivals such as the Berkeley Jazz Festival, the Holyoke Jazz Festival, as well as other seasonal concerts. The Jazz Band has been growing rapidly throughout the years and to that effect created yet another Jazz Combo. Mr. Jason Bouchard is proud of the achievements made by the group and the advancement of the program. For casual observers and participants alike, this year's Jazz Band is more enjoyable than ever!

The Enfield High School Marching Band performed at the Big E and several parades including the Memorial Day Parade, the Veteran's Day Parade, and many more. The Marching Band has outdone itself this year with yet another amazing repertoire of music. Their performances were always amazing and garnered much applause.

The orchestra displayed immense talent this year by taking on pieces such as the Bellingrath Gardens, Coming of Age, and Paradiso. These songs were featured in the highly successful winter concert. The orchestra is still growing in numbers and talent, however, this year the orchestra has truly shown us what it can really do!

Now in its fourth year, the Enfield High School Latin Club continues to grow in popularity. Latin is no longer a dead language, for it can be heard spoken fluently in A314 on Monday afternoons. Students in all levels of Latin gather to share in their love of the language. With Roman games, community service projects, and movie nights, Latin Club is THE place for Latin scholars!

The Art Club continues to be the creative outlet sought by students with vivid imaginations and a craving to express their visions through their works. This year they have completed more work in the art rooms in the form of murals and continue to improve the aesthetic look of the school through their many works of art.

The As Schools Match Wits team, a highly motivated group of intellectuals, meets weekly to exercise their minds in a fun environment. Advised by Dr. Frank Taylor and Mr. Steven Smith, these students sharpen their minds to prepare for the battle of wits against other students from around the area. While the team didn't make it to the finals this year, they continue to work hard and next year looks more promising than ever before.

The Christian Fellowship is a group in which students can express their religious views and differences in a safe environment free from the prejudices of the world. Students can discuss and share their thoughts and experiences without fear of disapproval or being rejected. The group does not discriminate against any religion and warmly welcomes anyone who wishes to become a part of the fellowship.

The Community Service Club has once again participated in many activities helping a variety of people, from the elementary students at Field Day, to cancer patients through Relay for Life. Student participation has continued to grow, making this club a great way to make friends, help out in the community, and make a difference in the lives of others, while learning more about themselves along the way.

The CT/Spain Partnership, now in it's third year, continues to enrich the lives of twenty American students through the exchange program with their sister school in Spain, Instituto de Ribera in Valladolid. Each year the students experience something different. This year the students travelled to the south of Spain to spend three days in Seville. Mrs. Linda Dalpe and Mrs. Barbara O'Neill, with the help of parents and students alike, continue to work hard to make the program a success. More pictures are on page 133.

The Math Team is home to students with a love, or mastery, of the skills needed to be a math wizard. Every year they a trip to Worchester Polytechnic Institute to compete against other teams, as well as each other. This year Tim Bui received an MVP award for scoring the most points. The team will continue practicing, and hopes to better their skills for next year's competitions.

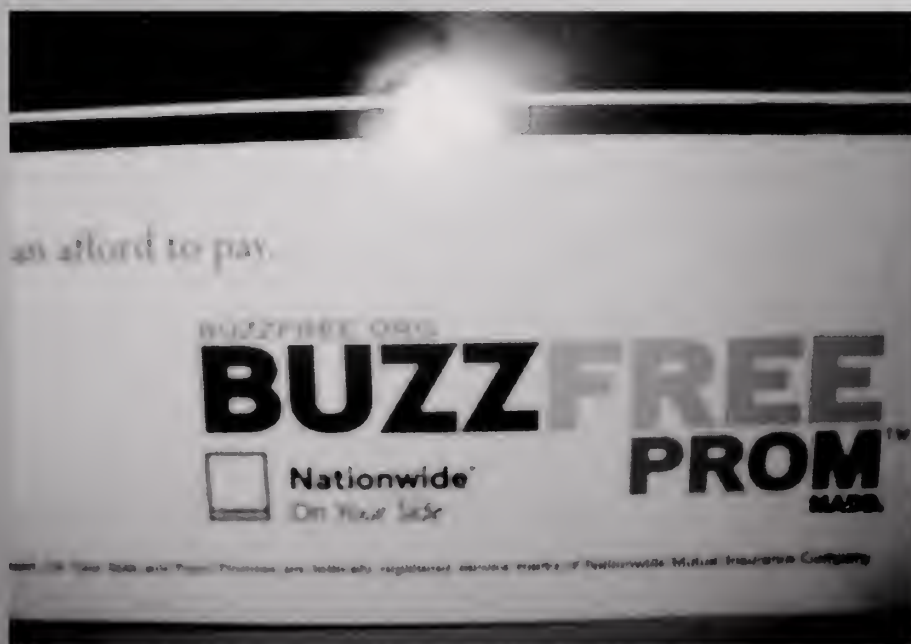

LIBRARY LAIDES

The Library Aides worked hard this year under the direction of Ms. Ellis and Mrs. Haze. This year they had the added duty of labeling all of the bookcases with paper numbers, including reference, biographies and fiction. They also maintained and updated periodicals as well as checked in study hall students. Seniors involved this year include head library aide Amy Mule; as well as Megan Cooper, Megan Thomson, Rebecca Murray, and Tim Bui. Other library aides include Amanda Viets, Brittany Bolella and Nick Zeni.

S.P.A.D.D & PROM PROMISE

This year a new approach was given to the Prom Promise, as the school used the Buzz Free Prom campaign instead. This included new technology, as well as catchy posters and a movie shown with consequences before the prom season started.

PEER MEDIATORS

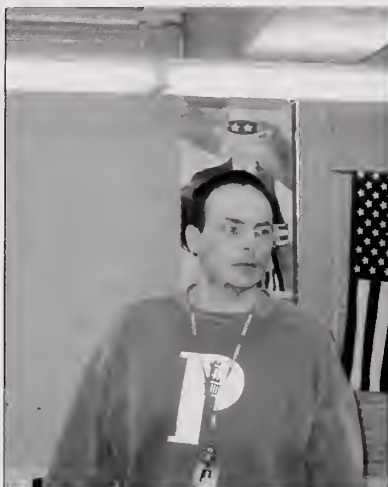

The 2005-2006 Enfield High School Peer Mediators have worked hard to resolve conflicts. They have provided a real service to improving the social environment of our school. The group's only senior, Tina Oyenia, will be missed next year as the Peer Mediators continue helping the students.

SKI CLUB

The ski club was again one of the biggest clubs at Enfield High School. The students enjoyed the season greatly, and look forward to more snow next year.

Patriotic Song Club had a great year in 2005-2006. New members were added to the group. Performances included the September 11th remembrance ceremony at the Enfield town green and the Big E. Their incarnation as the Rico Bravo Band performed at the EHS Holiday concert with a stellar performance by Mr. Crane as Bono. The club also plans to perform at an Enfield High district elementary school over the summer. Mr. Democracy's classroom and the new Patriotic Song Band will be seen on cable public access in the summer of 2006. Members of the club include, Mr. Democracy, Mr. Crane, Mr. Duffy, Heather Rounsaville, Emma Meers, Joseph Lemeris, Mr. Murray, Lynn Camengay, Alyssa Suiter, Dominic Democracy and Mrs. Democracy.

It's been another enjoyable year for the students of Enfield High School thanks to the EHS Student Council. Homecoming weekend was memorable, from the bonfire to the last player leaving the field. School spirit could be seen in floats and the number of students who showed up to support their class. Students enjoyed dressing up according to the themes during spirit week—there were many interesting outfits! The pep rally before the Thanksgiving Day game was also effective in spreading school spirit. Looking at the up-coming classes, next year looks even more spirited than this year.

They've done it again! The Unified Sports Team has once again dominated, bringing home three medals—two gold and one silver. This diverse group of students comes together every year to celebrate their love of sports in a supportive and friendly environment. They play both soccer and volleyball. Though this year's success is hard to top, we hope for an even better season next year!

Saving the world is no easy task, but joining the Model United Nations club is a step in the right direction. This year, the group represented the delegations of Sudan and Liberia. They were unable to meet with the official delegations in New York City during their annual trip to the United Nations, but learned a lot about terrorism and other current events from representatives from Iran and Ghana. In February the club went to the University of Hartford to defend their countries, as well as the numerous resolutions that were accepted from the group. Enfield High's Model UN Club was especially proud to be represented by Ryan Skukowski, who served as a moderator for the Environmental Committee. Money and donations for Hurricane Katrina and Tsunami victims were collected to further show the group's dedication to amnesty. The year ended with the First Annual Chad Ellis Memorial Dinner, which was held at Ann's Pizza. Many active members are graduating this year and hope that the Model UN Club stays as a group of points of lights.

WELCOMING

Coming to a new school may seem like a daunting ordeal, but thanks to the Welcoming Committee new students feel right at home here at EHS. By meeting with freshmen and exchange students upon their arrival to Enfield High, the Welcoming Committee provides a friendly introduction to our school's community.

YEARBOOK

Comprised of a new group of students, the Yearbook Staff underwent a major makeover this year. While a great amount of interest was shown in the beginning of the year, the number of members soon dwindled to a mere few. Those who stayed, however, proved their dedication to the task set before them— often staying late into the night to work on the book. It was a hands on experience that doubled as a bonding experience that we shall not soon forget. The Staff will be seeking new members next year as this year it was completely made up of seniors. The Staff would like to thank Ms. Darin for her patience and perseverance throughout the past months. We would also like to thank all the other teachers that enabled us to produce this book.

B^{EL}C^{ANTO}

Bel Canto is a choir that joins both Enfield High School and Enrico Fermi High School freshman girls. The girls practice, perform, and compete together in a year-long partnership of musical training. Joining Bel Canto gives girls not only a warm and encouraging environment in which they develop their singing talents, but also an opportunity to make new friends that share a love of singing.

UNITED FOR EQUALITY

"Never doubt that a small group of individuals can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has." Such is the credo of the United for Equality Movement at Enfield High School. The students gather in sessions to discuss how to better the school environment, making it more open and understanding of the many different backgrounds and beliefs of the student body. At the end of each year, the Movement goes to a regional conference to share experiences and ideas on how to make schools not just a learning environment, but open and accepting ones at that!

The Enfield High Raiders
always gave their best effort!

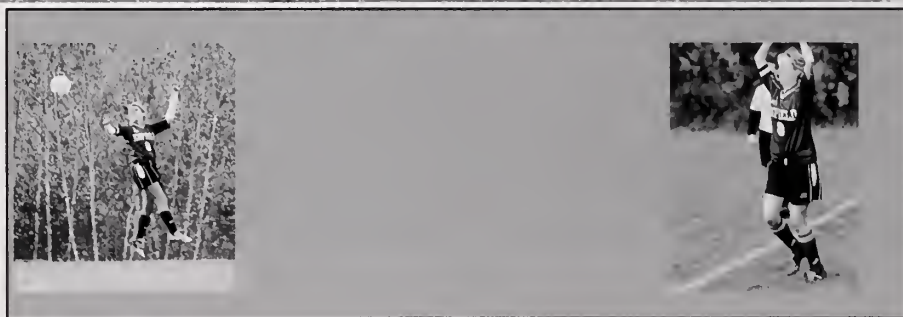

F O O T B A L L

The Enfield High Football team had a hard season. This year the team was young with only eight seniors. Captains Dominique Lindo and Wayne Newman were outstanding both on and off field. They led the team to victory over cross-town rival Fermi and claimed the trophy back. Dom led the team with most rushing charges and touchdowns. Also, Wayne received All-Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

BOYS' SOCCER

The young Raiders Boys Soccer Team was co-captained by Tim Littlejohn and JJ Rousseau and coached by Coaches Holmes, Fleck and Georgetti. They improved over last years season finishing the year with a 4-10-2 season. The team will miss the exceptional performances by the seven graduating seniors this year, but the skills of the younger members show that there will be even better seasons in the future.

The Boys' Soccer Team warms up before a big game.

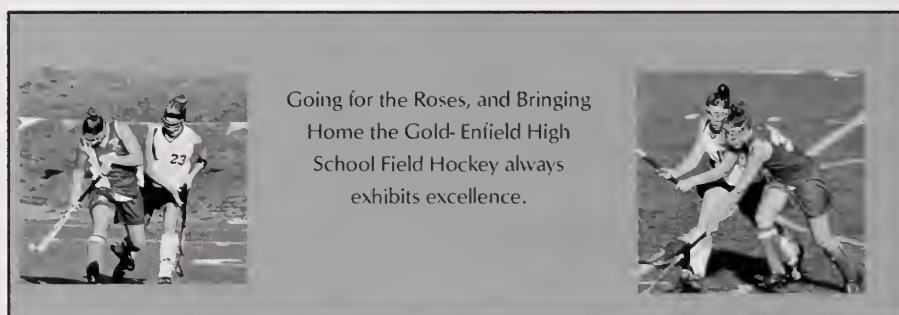

This field hockey season started off like many in the past: with the annual trip to Maine. The team was led by Co-Captain Christine Grady, and her fellow seniors Michelle Howe, Kaitlin Kostek, Patty Savoie, and first-time goalie Michelle Nolan. Mrs. B spent another year inspiring the players to go for the gold, and was assisted by J.V. coach, Coach K, affectionately called "Special K" by many of the players.

The Field Hockey team had one of their best seasons in the last four years. The team went to the quarter finals of the state tournament and also went up against Granby for the conference title, but fell short with a loss, ending the season with a 12-5-1 record. Co-captain Michelle Nolan was an outstanding goalie. Michelle Howe, Kaitlin Kostek, and Patty Savoie were also outstanding senior players who contributed a lot to the team. Co-Captain Christine Marie Grady was named NCCC All-Conference, All-State, All-League, and League MVP for Class M. With so much success this season, next season looks even better.

Ice Hockey

The Enfield High School Varsity Ice Hockey team celebrated a phenomenal season. With a final record of fifteen wins and four losses, the Raiders were dominant in their conference. A large part of the team's success is due to the leadership exhibited by the seniors. Thank you, seniors, for leading our Raiders to so many victories. It was not just the seniors that contributed to the team effort. Every player had something special to contribute to every game. The team will use this year as a strong building block for an even better season next year. Congratulations to all of the seniors; we will miss you.

The 2006 season was one of the longest seasons for the Enfield High School Girls' Varsity Basketball team. Our team had its ups and downs but throughout the season, we developed a lot as a team and shared a lot of good experiences. Next year, we are losing two of our starting players, our captains Vanessa Smith and Chelsea Chittick. Though our record didn't show our real hearts, it will hopefully come through next year. Thanks to our new Varsity Coach, Coach Gowan, we all improved a lot as players and learned so much. We wish the best of luck for 2007.

Boys' Basketball

The Enfield High School Boys' Basketball team had a long and interesting season, beginning with getting a new coaching staff and also pulling together a team that lost most of its players. Despite the struggles, the Raiders ended the season with a nice run. Although they did not do well in the NCCC conference, they managed to have a satisfactory record. The team was also young with only one senior, John Nadeau. Next year, they will be more experienced and more familiar with each other therefore ensuring a more successful return.

The Enfield High School Softball team had yet another fantastic season. Each and every girl put forth her best effort and it really paid off. The team worked, played, and bonded together. They were no longer just a team, but rather a family. A family that loved and understood each other and shared the same love of the sport. The team looks forward to next season, when they can build on this solid foundation of camaraderie and support. Congratulations to the seniors- you will be greatly missed.

Sports

The Enfield High School Varsity Baseball team had a truly memorable season. They out-hit, out-ran and out-played every single opponent they faced. The effort the team put into each game was incredible. The team is looking forward to a new line-up next season that will open up even more possibilities. Congratulations to the graduating seniors of the team- they will be missed greatly.

Sports

Cross Country

The Enfield High School Cross Country team had yet another exciting season! A great many students participated this year making it one of the most successful seasons ever. Cross country runners are the very embodiment of endurance, training, and hard work, yet their competitiveness and love of running make it all worth while. The team hopes to attract new runners next year to guarantee another enjoyable and memorable year.

Enfield runners always pushed the envelope and strove to come in first.

Sports Dance Team

The Cheerleading and Dance teams of Enfield High School know how to get the crowd excited. The cheerleading squad appeared at every football game, the dance team performed at the Winter Assembly and both teams performed at the Winter Sports Pep Rally. Congratulations to the graduating seniors! We will miss your energetic spirit.

The outdoor track teams are looking strong and poised for a great season. Most of last year's team returned and the boy's team is looking to repeat another season of being undefeated in both relays and dual meets. Jake Grossouw's strong outings in the distance events and Alex Hodges in the sprints add to the team's strength. The girl's are looking good with Jaime Smith in the sprints, Brittany Bollela in the 800 and mile, Tina Oyeniya scoring big in the hurdles, and a 4X100 relay team that plans to dominate the competition.

T r a c k

The Enfield High School Indoor Track team has grown a lot this year. They have had a lot more students come out for the team. With this, they have had a successful season with outstanding relay teams and scored a lot of points in the individual areas. Brittany Bolella is a junior who runs the 800 meter. Seniors Tina Oyenia and Jake Grossouw led the team: Tina excelled in the hurdles and sprints while Jake was outstanding in the distance and relay running. All together the team is in good shape for the next year; having a lot of young and talented runners such as Jaime Smith and Kewanna Donaldson. The girls and boys sprint medley teams also did very well both placing in conference.

Pepe's little girl is all grown up!!!

Nicole Clavette,
We've watched you grow from a beautiful baby girl into a beautiful young woman. We are all so proud of you. Remember to always follow your dreams.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Stephen, Sam, Meme,
Grandma, and all your Aunts,
Uncles, and Cousins

Amy,
From the moment you were born you have brightened our lives with your smiles. You have grown into a beautiful young woman who is loving, thoughtful, and considerate of everyone around you. We are very proud of whom you have become and we know will accomplish great things.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Forever Young

By Rod Stewart

May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam
And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home
And may you grow to be proud, dignified, and true
And do unto others as you would have done to you
Be courageous and be brave
And in my heart you'll always stay
Forever young
May good fortune be with you, may your guiding light be strong
Build a stairway to heaven with a prince or a vagabond
And may you never love in vain
And in my heart you will remain
Forever young
And when you finally fly away, I'll be hoping that I served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime, no one can ever tell
But whatever road you choose
I'm right behind you
Win or lose
Forever young

Joey,

We are so proud of you.

Congratulations and best wishes.

Always be true to yourself and follow your dreams.

With all our love,

Mom, Sossie, Chris and Nick

Congratutlations, Sis!
